

A Program of The National Institute for Civil Discourse

①

Text CIVILITY to 89800

Participants gather in groups of 3-5 with one cell phone. Text CIVILITY to 89800 to begin.

②

Follow the text prompts

Text, Talk, Revive Civility is so easy you don't need a facilitator. Each group moves through the texted script at their own pace. Groups will talk about the importance of civility and how to revive it in our democracy and everyday lives.

③

Be a part of the change

Let the program guide you through a series of discussion questions, videos, social media interactions, and polling questions. As a group, you'll discover new ideas and perspectives - and build skills to have a respectful dialogue.

WHAT'S THIS?

Text, Talk, Revive Civility combines text messaging with face to face dialogue. Gather your friends and family and text CIVILITY to 89800 for a fun and engaging conversation on the importance of civility and how to revive it in our democracy and everyday lives.

WHY DO THIS?

Because we need to work together to find solutions to our nation's most pressing problems.

Because we can't find those solutions if we aren't listening to each other.

Because learning how to work together is a skill that lasts a lifetime.

LEARN MORE

Visit nicd.arizona.edu
#ReviveCivility

